WANT A LARGE FUND
Municipal Building Opening
Will Cost $10,000.

PUBLIC ASKED TO SUBSCRIBE
Joint Committee Appointed by Board of Trade and Chamber of Commerce Names Large Finance Committee to Aid in Canvassing the District—Plan Announced.

APPEAL TO CITIZENS.
The Commissioners of the District of Columbia, the Board of Trade and the Chamber of Commerce, to appoint committees to take charge of the celebration for the opening of the new Municipal Building. At a meeting of this joint committee it was decided to hold this celebration July 4, the ceremonies to begin at 10 o'clock a. m. The exercises, which are to be held in front of the building, are to consist of a series of short addresses by prominent citizens of the District and the nation, to be followed by a reception by the Commissioners.

In the evening it is proposed to have an illumination of Pennsylvania avenue, together with a display of fireworks at the White Lot. To properly carry out this program it was, in the opinion of the committee, necessary that subscriptions should be made by the residents of the District to defray the expenses, which are estimated to cost about $10,000.

The completion of this splendid structure for the housing of our District government marks a new era in our city's progress. It is the first permanent official home our city has ever had. This magnificent building and the day on which we intend to dedicate it should awaken our patriotism and cause our citizens to look forward to this event in a most patriotic fashion. Let us enter into this celebration in keeping with the spirit which moved our forefathers who laid the foundations of our government.

In closing I would like to ask you to fill it out for such an amount as you may desire or wish for same to the undersigned, care of American Security and Trust Company, etc.

CLARENCE F. NORMANT
Chairman finance committee.
The foregoing letter was addressed yesterday to the principal business men and public spirited citizens of the District of Columbia by the finance committee of the joint committee appointed by the Board of Trade and Chamber of Commerce to devise ways and means to celebrate properly the opening of the new municipal buildings next July.

The form of the appeal was determined upon earlier in the day at a meeting of the joint committee. At that time the question of raising the $10,000 needed for the celebration was discussed, and it was the sense of the meeting that a statement of the purpose of the celebration, with the amount required to finance the proposition should be sent to the citizens of the District, with a view to having the contributions to the project as nearly a popular subscription as possible.

John Joy Edson, chairman of the joint committee yesterday made known the personnel of the several subcommittees of the general committee as follows:

Committee on orders—Thomas P. Morgan, chairman; Walter Kling, vice chairman; Alan O. Clephane, secretary.
Committee on music—Edward H. Droop, chairman; Edgar J. Bell, vice chairman; William P. Glover, secretary.

Executive committee—John Joy Edson, chairman; Charles A. Adams, C. J. Norman, Chapin Brown, Scott C. Bone, Thomas P. Morgan, Cuno H. Rudolph, Edward H. Droop, Robert N. Dolan.

MEMORIAL TO PHILIP GERRY
Commemorative Alcoe in Public Library Proposed by Admirers.
Meeting in Interest of Project Tomorrow Night to Be Addressed by Dr. Hale and Judge Stafford.

Friends and admirers of the late Philip Gerry, formerly teacher of the English language at the local high schools, and latterly assistant Sunday editor of the Washington Star, who recently died, after informally meeting a number of times and discussing the subject, have decided to honor his memory in an appropriate manner.

Making the study of the English language a life-work, it was deemed proper that his memory would be best revered by establishing in the Public Library a "Philip Gerry Alcoe" to contain the best English authors, the books to be donated and supplied by the society which has undertaken the work. It is also intended to grace this alcove with a bust or a portrait of Mr. Gerry, and to furnish it with suitable book-racks, tables, chairs, and other paraphernalia.

It is further proposed to have a special "Gerry Alcoe" book-plate designed for the books of the memorial library. A public meeting has been called by the friends and promoters of the movement for to-morrow evening at the Public Library. It is expected that Rev. Dr. E. E. Hale, the venerable chaplain of the Senate; Judge Stafford, of the District Supreme Court, and other prominent speakers will make addresses in favor of the project.

SUES FOR DAMAGES
Bradfield Wants McDermott to Pay Him $10,000.

MAKES A CHARGE OF SLANDER
President of Local No. 2, Commercial Telegraphers' Union, Brings Action Against Illinois Representative. C. L. U. Committee Called "Anarchists and Know-nothings."

Representative James T. McDermott, of Illinois, was yesterday made the defendant in a suit for $10,000 damages for alleged slander, instituted by William Bradford, president of Local No. 21 of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union. In the declaration filed by Attorneys Alvin Newmeyer and Leon Tobiasner, in behalf of Bradford, it is set forth that Representative McDermott, in a conversation with members of the Washington local of which Mr. Bradford is the president, made the statement that Bradford, in a letter to Chairman Overstreet, of the Committee on Post-offices and Post Roads, denominated certain members of a committee appointed by the Central Labor Union, and by James L. Feeney, prominent member of the Central Labor Union, with being "an enemy of organized labor."

Purpose of the Committee.
This committee was appointed for the purpose of appearing before Chairman Overstreet's committee and advocating favorable action on the bill introduced by Representative Carey, of Wisconsin, former telegraph operator, which provided for government ownership of telegraph lines. Following this statement by Representative McDermott, the declaration states, Bradford was charged by President Overstreet, of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union, and by James L. Feeney, prominent member of the Central Labor Union, with being "an enemy of organized labor."

The committee appointed by the Central Labor Union to appear before the House committee, which has charge of Representative Carey's bill, was composed of James L. Feeney, chairman; John H. Brinkman, E. L. Adams, P. J. Ryan, and R. G. M. Ross.

The declaration states that this committee was refused a hearing by Chairman Overstreet, and a letter which was written by Mr. Bradford is contained in the declaration.

Congratulated in Letter.
This letter congratulates Mr. Overstreet for denying "individual members" of the union a hearing, and concluded with the statement that the writer, Bradford, had encountered but few telegraph operators who wanted government ownership of telegraph lines, and they were "usually incompetents and socialists."

The declaration states that Bradford never denominated members of the committee as "anarchists and Know-nothings," and if he had made such a statement it would have been libelous and would have subjected him to criminal prosecution.

NO DISTRICT PROHIBITION.
Measure Gently Tucked Away in the House Committee.
Sam De Nedrey, secretary of the Central Labor Union, was the principal witness yesterday at the hearing before the House District Committee on the Sims prohibition bill. Mr. De Nedrey instanced the State of Maine, where, he said, there is continual violation of the liquor law, and the State of Tennessee, where, he maintained, the only effect of prohibition has been to increase the "jug trade."

As has long been understood, there is no likelihood that the committee will report out the bill, and there is no possibility of prohibition for the District of Columbia this year.

Will Attend Shad Bake.
The Mayflower Society has accepted the invitation of the District of Columbia Society, Sons of the American Revolution, to join them in their shad-bake dinner at Marshall Hall to-morrow. The steamer Charles Macleaner will leave the Seventh street wharf, at 1:45 o'clock, and will return to the city about 5 o'clock.

Five After the Position.
A spirited contest is under way for the position of Engineer-in-chief of the Navy, to succeed the late Rear Admiral C. W. Rae, who died on May 13. There are five prominent candidates: Capt. A. F. Dixon, Capt. G. B. Ransom, Capt. John R. Edwards, Commander R. T. Hall, and Commander R. S. Griffin.

WILL PROCURED BY FRAUD
Last Testament of Mrs. L. A. B. Hughes Is Set Aside.

Court Holds that E. G. Niles Used Undue Influence and that Testament Was Insane.

The jury which for several days has been hearing testimony in the suit brought by relatives of Mrs. Louise A. B. Hughes, aged widow of David M. Hughes, to break her will, yesterday brought in a verdict finding the will was procured by fraud and undue influence of the late Edward G. Niles, an attorney, and that the woman was insane when she made the will.

By the will of her husband, Mrs. Hughes was given the right to dispose of $50,000. The evidence showed that Niles induced her to make a will in which he and his wife, Mrs. Mary M. Farrell, were the chief beneficiaries. The evidence also showed that Niles was instrumental in having the woman committed to an insane asylum in New York after the will was executed.

The heirs of Mrs. Hughes, who succeeded in having the will set aside, are Mrs. Elizabeth Carson, Mrs. Emma I. Brown, Miss Cora Hughes, and Miss Maria Soule Hughes, nieces of New York, all named in a former will made by Mrs. Hughes.

Washington beneficiaries of the former will are Cuno H. Rudolph, $5,000; Mrs. Fannie B. Rhodes, $1,000; Georgetown University, $500; and the Baptist Home of the District of Columbia, $500. The Sisters of Bon Secours for the Care of the Sick, of Baltimore, were also bequeathed $1,000 under this will.

The successful contestants were represented by Attorneys H. H. Glasco, M. J. Colbert, W. H. Sholes, Andrew Shipman, H. S. Kimball, and G. W. Stetson. Attorneys Chamberlain & Gittings represented Mrs. Niles and other beneficiaries of the will which was set aside.

Railway Men to Have Outing.
